

The Arts chair combines high-end theatre styling with the flexibility of Retractable Seating thanks to its clever nose-mounted design. The backrest is the only element that folds into the platform which allows enhanced contouring of the seat profile leading to exceptional levels of comfort for the end user.

FEATURES

- For retractable applications, it is available on a row rise of just 245mm
- Spring-activated tipping mechanism with a silent stop feature
- Solid wood armrests as standard with matching show wood panels also available
- Seat centres from 500-550mm
- Fixed and flat floor versions are available
